

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

This is an issue about what is best for American citizens and not for the media corporate world. Fewer owners of media means greater control of what Americans see and hear about the world around them.

Please do not relax the media consolidation rules.
Joe Passanise